Solutions

Conditional sentences EX1

Conditional sentences explanation

Complete the following sentences using the three types of conditional sentences:

If I had known (know) the truth I wouldn't have said those stupid words.

If I had (have) more money I would buy a new house.

John will come (come) if Mary calls (call) him.

If I were (be) you, I would visit Ann.

You won't arrive (not arrive) on time unless you hurry up.

If I study (study) harder I will pass my two exams tomorrow.

Rose would have come (come) if you hadn't been so stupid with her.

If you heat the water, it boils (Zero type) (boil).

Maria's baby would sleep (sleep) if you kept silence.

Vanessa will pass (pass) her exams if she feels confident.